

Building Below Normal Figures in Lower Merion

FEW SMALL HOMES ARE UNDER CONSTRUCTION, REPORTS SHOW.

Total is $3,500,000.

Although the total value of new buildings for homes in course of erection or recently completed in Lower Merion and Narberth reaches an approximate figure of $3,500,000, the actual condition is that building has in no sense begun to move up, in the number of homes, toward the needs of the Main Line communities included in the district.

The largest amount of building is in the Merion district, with Cynwyd and Narberth next. There is some interesting activity at Wynnewood also.

But eliminating the houses building at Narberth, the others mentioned are all large and expensive constructions for the homes of wealthy individuals. They are not "building operations" in the accepted sense.

Outside of fairly brisk development at Narberth, and forty small houses under construction at Bryn Mawr, there is "nothing doing" in the rest of Lower Merion township.

A fairly complete compilation of building activities of this season brings the total to $3,335,500 for Lower Merion and Narberth, of which $375,000 represents the estimated value of home building now going on at Narberth.

The balance—Lower Merion building—is $2,960,500, but $1,000,000 of this is applied to the erection at Lancaster and City Line, Overbrook, of a large apartment house on the Morris estate.

This leaves $1,960,500; in round figures, $2,000,000, for the season's building in Lower Merion. The figures on which this estimate is based have been compiled from real estate assessors' reports.

Before the war the annual construction of new homes in Lower Merion approximated $1,500,000, at the costs existing at that time. The biggest year was 1912, with $2,500,000. Building experts and real estate men believe that building costs today can be estimated at two-thirds over pre-war figures, at the least, so that a normal building program in Lower Merion—which would not be enough—at present costs, would be $2,500,000, at least.

Among important building developments of the season are:

Five houses approximating $10,000 each on Avon road and six houses at about $12,500 each on Haverford road, in Anthwyn Farms, between Narberth and Merion.

Large brick apartment house at Avon and Haverford roads, Anthwyn Farms, at about $40,000, under construction by William D. Smedley, who contemplates erection of another similar building on the adjoining property.

Four bungalows on Avon road by the same builder at about $10,000 each.

William T. Harris is constructing 33 houses averaging $5,500 in Brookhurst and Gordon avenues, just outside Narberth borough.

Home of Frank and Lillian Snyder, Berkeley and Wynnewood roads, Merion, stone house, not yet completed, will cost when finished about $45,000.

Merbrook avenue, Merion, Walter H. Thomas, Donald Kilpatrick, Sydney E. Patton and John Graham, Jr., are erecting five houses averaging $16,500 on tract purchased from the Supplee estate and plan development of the whole property, which contains about 35 lots of good size.

Merion avenue, below Sycamore avenue, Merion; Frank Seeburger is building for Frank R. Elliott a $30,000 home.

Adjoining the Elliott property Oscar T. Stager is building a similar home for himself.

409 Sycamore avenue, Merion; Seeburger is building $30,000 home for M. B. Courtwright.

Sycamore avenue; $25,000 home for Thomas O. Bretherton.

Sycamore avenue, Merion; $30,000 home for Barton G. Levin.

Stone colonial house at corner of Brookway and Linden lane, Merion, worth about $40,000, built by William H. Steigerwald and sold to Karl Lindgren for a home.

Sycamore avenue and Orchard Way, Merion, on Steigerwald operation, $50,000 stone colonial house for Mrs. McCree.

E. J. Hedden, builder, constructing $37,500 stone colonial house on Bowman avenue, Haywood tract; $45,000 stone colonial house north side of Bowman avenue; $5,000 colonial house and three acres built by Hedden and recently purchased by William F. Lewis; Montgomery avenue, house and one acre at about $45,000, built for Hedden's own home.

Sutherland & Seeburger building $10,500 house at Bryn Mawr avenue and Lore's lane on Pennsylvania Home Land tract, Cynwyd.

Other constructions on this tract include: Penarth road, Daniel Houseman, home at about $25,000; Radcliffe and Penarth roads, home at $18,000, for Anna Alice Rutter; Penarth road west of Radcliffe, home at $16,500, for Alice Hallauer; Penarth road west of Radcliffe, $13,500 house, for Margaretta May; Radcliffe road, $12,000 home, for Margaret P. Fisher; Radcliffe road, four houses erected by P. J. Lawler for Ethel E. T. Pierce, John C. and Katherine G. Childs, Helen F. J. Slinghuff and Harry Wills Ruth.

Townsend tract, Overbrook, house on half acre at $32,00, for T. Nevin Carson; house and three acres at $70,000, for J. D. C. Henderson; $35,000 for John McMullin.

Anthwyn Farms, two houses, corner Anthwyn and Oaks roads, for William McDowell.

Morris estate, Overbrook, apartment house at Lancaster and City Line, on four acres, at about $1,000,000.

Clywd road, Cynwyd, $18,000 house for A. W. Pickford.

Toland tract, Wynnewood, Montgomery avenue, next to Penn Cottage, half acre and house by Robert Toland at about $12,000; L. H. Kinnard, house and one acre, about $40,000; Henry G. Pearce, corner Penn and Audrey roads, $40,000; southeast corner Kent road and Mansion lane, Wynnewood, for Frances A. Donaldson, $32,500; S. C. Wagner, Jr., home at southwest corner of Montgomery avenue and Wister roads, Wynnewood, $55,000; 258 Kent road, Wynnewood, $32,500 home for Rosalie P. Dougherty, formerly of Haverford; 269 Hathaway lane, C. J. McElvaine building $16,500 house.

Montgomery avenue and St. George's road, Ardmore, home for Margaret MacLeod, $23,000; Glenn road, Ardmore, $40,000 home for W. H. McCree; St. George's and Glenn road, Ardmore, $37,500 home for Dr. H. K. Hancock.

Bryn Mawr, forty houses at $4,500 each on Markee Terrace and Floyd Terrace, by F. J. Floyd.

H. A. Dalley, Townsend property, Bryn Mawr, alterations at old house of approximately $20,000.

THE FIRESIDE

Mr. George M. Floyd, who has been seriously ill, is somewhat improved.

Mr. W. H. Irvin has sold his property, 215 Essex avenue. Mr. Irvin and family expect to remain in Narberth.

Miss Minnie H. Goldsmith, a graduate nurse, is making her home at 205 Forrest Avenue, Narberth.

Edgar S. Taylor was called to Indianapolis last week by the death of his father, Judge N. M. Taylor.

The regular monthly meeting of the "King's Herald" will be held Sunday afternoon, April 25th, in the Methodist Church. Mrs. Clegg will give the chapter in "Mook."

The Bryn Mawr Revels and Plays will be given again this year on the college campus, May 7 and 8. It will be the fifth May Day in the history of the college and the first since 1914. Mrs. Otis Skinner, of Bryn Mawr, will be director of the fete.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter McDowell, of Elmwood Avenue, Narberth, entertained their bridge club on Saturday evening. The following members were present: Dr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Town, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hartley, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones.

Good news! "No delivery" has brought many hardships to Narberth women. Here is relief—a little band of girls wish to call "pin money" for a good cause. Mrs. Colesworthy, phone 668-W, assumes the responsibility. Call her for particulars. Store deliveries will be made at a very reasonable charge.

Mrs. Horace Moore, of Essex Avenue, Narberth, will entertain at bridge tomorrow afternoon. The guests will be Mrs. William Glose, Mrs. Fred Warner, Mrs. Edwin C. Town, Mrs. Harold Treon, Mrs. Harry Hartley, Mrs. G. B. Sefton, Mrs. Raymond Jones, Mrs. Hunter McDowell, Mrs. Thornton Gragan, Mrs. Samuel T. Atherholt and Mrs. R. J. Hunt, of Haddonfield, N. J.

A survey of the Borough of Narberth has been made by a postoffice inspector looking to the establishment of free delivery service.

It was found that many houses are not numbered and a few places where there are no sidewalks, before the department will authorize the service, the houses not now numbered must be numbered and all householders will be required to provide a suitable mail box to receive the mail and sidewalks must be laid where required.

DEATH OF JEANETTE LUDOVICI.

It was a great sorrow to friends and neighbors to learn of the death of Mrs. Jeanette Ludovici, of 109 Elmwood avenue. She was taken to Hahnemann Hospital on Monday, April 12, suffering with bronchial pneumonia and died Saturday, April 17.

Funeral services were held at Oliver Bair's funeral parlors on last Monday morning, Rev. John Van Ness officiating. The body was taken to New York City for interment.

Mrs. Ludovici had lived in Narberth for the past eight years and will be greatly missed in the community.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. Ludovici in his bereavement.

A NEIGHBOR.

We Will Meet You at the Bazaar Tonight

BE ON HAND EARLY, FOR A BIG TIME IS IN STORE. BAZAAR OPEN
FROM 2 UNTIL 10 P. M.

The biggest day of the two-day Bazaar of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth is today, Saturday, from 2 until 10 P. M. Both the Y. M. C. A. and Elm Hall have been engaged for the occasion, the former for the supper only, the Bazaar proper being held in Elm Hall. The proceeds of the Bazaar will be for the Narberth Club House Building Fund, a building of which Narberth is in so much need, and every dollar spent at the Bazaar means just so much money towards a good cause.

The bill of fare as advertised is inviting, and it is expected that a very big crowd will participate.

Children will particularly be interested, as there are many things of interest for them. Supper time at the Y. M. C. A. will be a general meeting place for husbands, wives and kiddies. Music and dancing will top the evening's pleasure. Be on hand early and bring a friend with you, and prepare to buy your supper and stay around until closing time. You will never regret the good time to be had, as well as the many good things which are offered, and which have been so kindly donated by folks of the borough.

Editorial

Several weeks ago we received a notice from one of our subscribers to discontinue sending the paper to her address, and this week received the following encouraging letter, which was a surprise:

"I surely do feel I cannot give up our little paper, Our Town, so if you will kindly continue sending it to the above address, I shall be pleased."

To the Editor of Our Town:

It is with great regret and a real sense of self reproach that I have read the article in Our Town on the Narberth Young Men's Christian Association.

It is a source of regret, and I am sure due to an unconscious oversight on the part of the citizens of such an up-to-date borough as Narberth, that an institution for the young people should be obliged to close its doors.

It gives me a feeling of self-reproach that the churches of Narberth, our own little church included, should have allowed such a necessity to arise. Indeed, of what value to the spiritual and moral life of the young person is the Sunday School with a session of one hour in seven days when on the other six days along the street, billiard "parlor," candy shop and movies offer hospitality?

I do not want to be presumptuous and call a meeting of the ministers of Narberth, because I am not a resident, although I do share the privilege of ministering to many of your residents. The cessation of activities and closing of the Y. M. C. A., however, does withdraw from the churches a very real help. Will not the ministers get together and assume the responsibility of shouldering the financial burden of the Y. M. C. A. through their parishes and enable thereby that most remarkable and helpful institution to continue its activities? I shall be very glad to enroll All Saints' Church in such a campaign.

GIBSON BELL.

All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, Pa.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Having become somewhat tired of the inaction with respect to Narbrook Park, I wonder if you will kindly print this letter or the following paragraphs in the next issue of your paper?

Ever since the several letters of those of us who live in Narbrook Park we have been promised that we would have some relief from the existing condition of our roads, and that we would have lights and the other conveniences for which we are taxed as residents of Narberth and for which we pay, but over which we seemingly have no controlling voice with the remainder of the citizens in the town.

It is exceedingly aggravating to us who have been forced to live with the inconveniences which are existing in this section, and this is an appeal to all who will read this to see if public opinion at least will not force those in authority to take that action which is rightfully due, and in fact now long overdue.

We seem to have plenty of advice, but no action. We are told that the reason there is no action is on account of personal differences between former members of the Park Committee and former or present members of the Town Council. Is this true? And if it is, do we have to sit by and see the property which we assisted in paying for and which was offered to the Borough of Narberth as a completed unit go to pieces before our eyes?

These are leading questions, indeed, but no more so than seem to be required to force someone to speak up and tell us why we suffer for the shortcomings of others. Our welcome into Narberth is, indeed, not one of which anyone can be proud, when these matters which affect but those few of us who own property in the Park are considered.

If these were cheap houses, poorly erected, and a detriment to the town, the case would be different. But it is not so, for, on the contrary, the plan and design of every house must be approved before it can be erected, assuring only the highest class of building. And it is not possible to find in any community in the neighborhood of Philadelphia any such a delightful spot—new, alas, going rapidly to rack and ruin.

Will someone not kindly tell us, therefore, what is the real trouble? And cannot someone tell us what is necessary, so that matters can be adjusted as they should be?

VICTOR D. ABEL.

At the Bazaar Tonight

viding a big meal for a most moderate sum. We need you all.

Have you seen the Doll's House in Mr. Howard's window? Wouldn't your little girlie make a real mother for this house. Ask Mr. Howard.

The Electric Novelties are proving very popular with all. Have you seen the beautiful lady in Mr. Smith's drug store? And she has a message for you.

Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Owen will have all kinds of helps for mother at the Corner Grocery.

Did you know Mr. Peacock donated a barrel of china to the "White Elephant" booth at the Bazaar. Here's the opportunity to get those much needed extra pieces.

The Cake Booth, under our capable Mrs. Sarah Jones, will be loaded with all kinds of home-made cakes. Look us over before doing your weekly baking.

The Candy Booth, under its efficient manager, Mrs. Shenemann, and her assistants, will be laden with all kinds of goodies for young and old. Boys, we have your weekly box of candy for your best girl, and its home-made, too.

The Ice Cream and Lemonade Booth, under Mrs. Edgar S. Taylor's smooth management, will be popular. Mrs. Taylor has several of our own attractive "debs" as her assistants.

Household goods! So attractive to all housekeepers, and Mrs. Dothard will be ready for you.

The "White Elephant" Booth owns the "ton of coal." Won't this be a popular spot with the men?

Don't fail to visit the Electric Booth at the Bazaar. All kinds of labor-saving devices, which go to making life more comfortable.

All our town tradesmen have signified their willingness to assist the W. C. C. Bazaar, saying always, "Say when, ladies." Here's our cue, folks, for home trade.

One of our own boys, Mr. Thomas A. Kerrigan, Jr., carpenter and builder, has donated his services to the W. C. C. during the period of their Bazaar.

SCHOOL NOTES

"Without halting, without rest,
Lifting better up to best."

Our Chapel program on Tuesday morning was conducted by Seventh Grade girls as follows:

Hymn—"Now the Shades of Night Are Gone."

Poem—"The Dandelion," by Nan-nie Robins.

Solo—"Coming Through the Rye," by Grace Houston.

Jokes—Margaret Livingston and Sadie Simpson.

Violin Duets by Louise Krout and Ann Barclay, "The Spring Song," "The Birds Come a Flying."

Song—"Bobolink."

The Junior Literary Society is to have a Robert Louis Stevenson meeting this Friday. A sketch of the author's life will be read and some delightfully humorous letters which were written by him to a little girl who was so unfortunate as to have her birthday come at Christmas time. Of course, several poems from the Child's Garden of Verses will be part of the program, as well as some of these poems set to music. The boys and girls of the Eighth Grade will have charge of the meeting.

The track team has been practicing very regularly the past week. Monday and Tuesday were spent on Belmont Race Track and proved a fine success. Practice on Wednesday was called off on account of the rain. The order of the runners is as follows:—

Charles Kremer, Herbert McCarter, Lawrence Houston, John Erdman.

John Erdman has been elected captain and Herbert McCarter manager. Narberth High School will be represented in the meet on Franklin Field, April 30th and May 1st.

Thanks to the Class of 1919 for the cheerful and prompt response to a request to "help out" in the emergency on Saturday night. To the boys for going at once and to the girls for saying, "Go to it, boys—we'll hold your places beside us till you return."

Not the least among the many surprises on Saturday night was the "Brass Band," as the Cub styles it. But he was proud of it just the same, because it wasn't brassy.

Little need of a big splurge about the Senior Play. It talked more wisely for itself than can Our Town. The packed house—yes, it was "jammed"—was so appreciative that even the article submitted by an under-classman is unnecessary.

The School Board is doing its part to break up the Sunday and late evening nuisances on the athletic field. Citizens living near the field join in the spirit of good, wholesome sport and the necessary noises attached thereto, but they rightly object to profane and vulgar language—so do school authorities. Diligent effort will be made to put an immediate end to it.

The Senior Play.

The presentation of "Miss Somebody Else" by the Class of 1920, Narberth High School, in the High School Auditorium, April 17, proved a most enjoyable affair to those who crowded the auditorium and showed their appreciation by frequent laughter and applause.

It might seem unjust to single out certain performers for praise where all did such excellent work. Elizabeth Harsch deserves much credit for her excellent depictions of the two characters, Constance Darcy and Nora O'Brien. The dual role was illustriously portrayed. Laurence Houston and Ruth Durborow, as Mr. and Mrs. Delavan, represented the man who has only scientific thoughts and interests, and the wife, whose chief interests are centered in society, although it is necessary for her to become manager of the Tuxedobrook Club House in order to "make ends meet." Both of these amateurs showed great ability in so cleverly taking parts of middle-aged persons. Solveig Knutzen, as Mildred Delavan, the vivacious eighteen-year-old daughter of Ann and Jasper Delavan, was quite her natural self, and won the admiration of her audience. Fred Harsch made a very good villain, and was just as successful as a capricious lover. It was difficult selection of the players, and the fitness of each one for his or her part, that was most striking. Such conditions, plus unique stage settings and clever make-up work (thanks to Miss Cross!), were great helps toward success.

Miss Boynton's ability to direct and carry out big tasks was again plainly demonstrated.

The orchestra, only recently organized, and composed in part of quite youthful members, provided a very generous part of the evening's program. This work, under Miss Cross' capable direction, was a source of pleasure to all.

Just Where and How Is the Money to be Spent?

A businesslike Answer to a businesslike Question

THIRTY denominations cooperating in the Inter-church World Movement have budgeted their needs. No business could have done it more scientifically.

They have united to prevent the possibility of duplication or waste. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

Each denomination has arranged its budget under six main heads:

1 FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK AT HOME. A score of items come under this head. Consider only one. Five and a half million people in the United States cannot even read and write the English language. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Americanization if the church does not?

2 FOR HOSPITALS AND HOMES. Every year thousands of men and women seriously ill are turned away from Church hospitals because of lack of room. The children's homes are compelled to turn away more children than they can receive.

3 FOR HIGHER EDUCATION. Of the 450,000 American students in institutions of higher grade, one-half are in institutions founded and supported by the Churches. Many of these institutions have had no great endowment campaigns, but their needs are just as pressing as the needs of larger schools; and you have only to read their list of alumni and alumnae to measure the value of their contribution to America.

Each denomination has its own detailed budget, and will administer its own funds. Your pastor has copies of the budget; examine them for yourself. In the week of April 25th-May 2nd you will be given your opportunity to help. You can do it with the full satisfaction of knowing that every dollar of your gift has its post assigned to it in advance.

Every dollar for better America and a better world.
When your church calls on you give—and give with your heart as well as your pocket-book.

THE WORLD DO MOVE

Owen R. Lovejoy, of New York, president of the National Conference on Social Work, spoke recently in the Philadelphia City Hall under the direction of the educational department of the Municipal Court. Mr. Lovejoy selected "Children and Reconstruction" as the title of his address, but he covered a wide range of subjects. Some of his striking statements were:

"Don't increase the pay of school teachers—double it."

"Popular education in Russia spread more under Soviet rule in two and a half years than it did in centuries under Romanoff rule."

"In the past God had the habit of taking typhoid patients, but He has gotten over the habit."

"Under Hoover's administration we would have learned how to eat properly if the war had lasted five years longer."

"I don't want illiteracy abolished in ten years—I want it abolished now."

THE PRICE OF THINGS.

There was a young lady of Trent,
Who didn't care much what she spent,
When asked what he thought
Of a hat she had bought,
Her husband said: "Bang goes the rent!"

A girl in a smart social set
Went out an umbrella to get,
When told of the price
Of one that looked nice,
She said she would rather get wet!
—Lady's Pictorial.

THE BEST YEAR'S WORK IN THE HISTORY OF THE PRESBYTE- RIAN CHURCH.

The annual congregational meeting of the Narberth Presbyterian Church was held last Wednesday evening. Reports from all the various societies connected with the church were made for the year ending March 31, 1920. This has been a notable year in the history of the church and every previous record in the number of accessions and the amount of the contributions and the average attendance has been exceeded. A brief summary of all the reports follows:

25 received by profession.
62 received by certificate.
401 present membership.
348 enrolled in the Sabbath School.
$1,212 contributed to Home Missions.
$1,089 contributed to Foreign Missions.
$3,113 total to all benevolences.
$6,578 total to local work.
$9,749 grand total of all disbursements.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

The Woman's Community Club wishes to correct a rumor which has reached its Executive Board, as to the use of the Y. M. C. A. Community Room for the club meetings.

The club has always made a substantial donation at the end of the year to the Y. M. C. A. for their courtesy in giving the use of the room to our club. This notice is published with the consent of the Y. M. C. A. officials.

Attention of club members is called to the Montgomery County Federation meeting to be held May 15th at the Neighbors' Club, Hatboro. Everyone is invited.

The meeting of the Woman's Community Club was held April 20th, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor presiding. There was a delightful musical program—soloist, Mrs. Noel Butler; also an address on "Sensible Shoes," by Miss Billings, of the National Y. W. C. A.

Mr. Scattergood, who spent much time in France, both during and after the war, doing reconstruction work, gave a most interesting talk on the "World's Unrest of Today" and explained the Peace Treaty.

The Election Committee reported the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor; first vice president, Mrs. C. P. Fowler; second vice president, Mrs. A. B. Ross; recording secretary, Mrs. N. Anderson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. Muschamp, and treasurer, Mrs. J. Harris.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
